SINGLE COPY, FIVE CENTS. NO. 74.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

YORK, S. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1915.

BY FRANCIS LYNDE ILLUSTRATIONS of CDRHODES

the window seat, and Miss Grierson took it up to become idly immersed in was only mechanically, one would say.

of the white teeth upon the ripe lower vertising supplement; these, though

"You're fixed to put the entire re-

"Well?" he said, "how's Galbraith

The smoldering fires in the daugh ter's eyes leaped up at the provocation lurking in the grim brutality; but they were dving down again when she pu

the trade journal aside and said: "I didn't come here to tell you about Mr.

Galbraith. 'I came to give you notice that it is time to quit. When I asked

The president of the Farmers' and lounging angle and laughed; a slow eye and thence abroad through his tesque incarnation of the god of mirth out of the hole, am I? Oh, no; I guess

Fence Corner?"

hate these two so desperately?" she Jasper Grierson fanned away the nimbus of cigar smoke with which he

"Who said anything about hating?"

"I hate it!" she said coldly. Then again and the smoky nimbus was spoiled baby, Madge. If you'd cry for asked.

"I am to turn around and help him

Merchants' tilted his chair

drifted across to the window seat:

took his leave.

the window

coming along?"

CHAPTER XXIII. Narrowing Walls.

Raymer and the shop bosses in the of- went on in guarded tones at a silent into print?" fices of the plant the following morning. Having slept upon the quarrel Raymer was on the conciliatory hand, and four of the five department foremen were with him. The prompt clos- a study of the advertising pictures. If ing of the shops had had its effect, she listened to the low-toned talk it ward the door. But at the last moment and a deputation of the older workmen came to plead for arbitration and Yet there was a quickening of the tiger-cat at bay. a peaceful settlement of the trouble. But Griswold fought it and finally carried his point. "No compromise" was the answer sent back to the lockedout workmen, and with it went the ultimatum, which Griswold himself snapped out at the leader of the conciliators: "Tell your committee that sponsibility for the ruction over on to it is unconditional surrender, and it must be made before five o'clock this of the overheard sentences; it was her afternoon. Otherwwise, not a man of you can come back on any terms." Then Griswold proceeded to make the breach impossible by calling upon the sheriff for a guard of deputies. Raymer shook his head gloomily.

a patch-up," he said sorrowfully. "If this running to me. Keep to your own we hadn't declared war before, we've done it now. I'm prophesying that nobody will weaken when it comes to the pay-roll test this afternoon." "Because we have taken steps to protect our property?" rasped the which serves notice upon them that or a walking delegate, and who had intention. You'd resist it yourself, questionable things, by turns, Jasper we consider them criminals, at least in Griswold. If anybody should pull the Grierson swung his huge chair to face law on you before you had done anything to deserve it. I'm much mistaken if you wouldn't-

"Oh, hell!" was the biting interrup tion; and Raymer could not know upon what inward fires he had unwittingly flung a handful of inflamables. Broffin was as sure now that Griswold was his man as he was of his own present inability to prove it. "He'll make a miss-go, sooner or later," the pertinacious one was saying to himself you to put Mr. Raymer under obligaas he strolled past the Raymer plant tions to you, I said I'd tell you when with a keen eye for the barred gates, it was time to stop." the lounging guards in the yard, and going at the pay office. "If he can carry a steady head through what's comin' to him here, he's a better man great frame until he shook like a grothan I've been stacking him up to be." Later, a big, red-faced man with his hat on the back of his head and a paste diamond in his shirt bosom came to join the shifting group on the office sidewalk. Broffin marked him. The man's name was Clancy: he was a Chicago ward worker, sham labor leader demagague a had man with a "pull." What chance had brought the Chicago ward bully into a village labor fight he was not long in finding. Clancy had come because he had been hired to come. The remainder was easy. The town gossips had supplied all the major facts of the Raymer-Grierson checkmate, and Broffin saw a great light. It was not labor and capital that were at odds: it was competition and monopoly. And monopoly invoking the aid of the Clancy's stood Broffin dropped the stick he had been whittling and got up to move away. Though some imaginative per sons would have it otherwise, a detective may still be a man of like passions-and generous prepossessionswith other men. For the time Broffin's Anglo-Saxon heritage, the love of fair play, made him forget the limitations of his trade. "By grapples, the old swine!"he was muttering to himself as he made a slow circuit of the plant inclosure. "Somebody ought to tell them two young ducks what they're up against. For a picayune, I'd do i myself. Huh!-and the little black eyed girl playin' fast an' loose with both of 'em at once while the old mon-

Thus Broffin, circling the Raymer works by way of the four enclosing span & blacks you were looking at streets; and when his back was turned and we'll call it square." the man called Clancy pointed him out to the group of discontents.

"D'ye see that felly doublin' the asked she, quietly ignoring the putafence corner? Ye're a fine lot of jays tive bribe. up here in th' beckwoods! Do I know him? Full well I do! An' that shows ye what honest workin'men has got to of yours-if that's what you mean." come to, these days. Didn't ye see him sittin' there on that castin'? Th' bosses put him there to keep tricks on there was a struggle, short and sharp, ye. If ye have the nerve of a bunch between the leaping passions and the of hoboes, ye'll watch yer chances and indomitable will. Yet she could speak tions. When she had finished he step on him like a cockroach. He's a softly. "What is the reason? Why do you Pinkerton!" Wahaska was duly thrilled and excited when, on the day following the storm and shipwreck, it found itself the scene of an angry conflict between had surrounded himself and stared capital and labor. It was a crude sur- gloomily at her through the rift. prise, both to the West side and to "Pottery Flat," to find the new book- he derided. "That's a fool woman's man with stiff mustaches and a big writing partner not only taking an ac- notion. This is business, and there make-believe diamond in his shirttive part in the fight, but apparently ain't any such thing as hate in busidirecting the capitalistic hostilities ness." with a high hand. At half-past four it was whispered about that war had she dragged the talk back to the chan-been declared. Raymer and Griswold nel it was leaving. "I ought to have were telegraphing for strike-breakers; broken in sooner; I might have known what you would do. You are responand the men were swearing that the sible for this labor trouble they are plant would be picketed and that scabs would be dealt with as traitors and enemies. five that Miss Grierson, driving in the when I came. You don't play fair with as you say-what? But it's only fair basket phaeton, made a stop in front of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank, better make an exception of me?"

Since it was long past the closing hours, the curtains were drawn in the vate room, entering without warning. Her father was not alone. In the chair at the desk-end sat a man florid all there is to it. Trot along home and Mr. Broffin. of face, hard-eyed and gross-bodied. 'tend to your tea parties; that's your His hat was on the back of his head, part of the game. I can play my hand and clamped between his teeth under alone." the bristling mustaches he held one of Jasper Grierson's fat black cigars. The and crossed the room quickly to stand half gallons to each resident of that victor and on him devolved the priv conference paused when the door before him.

ne question," she said, the suppressed passions finding their way into her given me a stone. I've said 'please' to As Traced in Early Files of The voice. I've asked for bread and you've you, and you slapped me for it. Do ou think you can afford to shove me over to the other side?"

at, now," was the even-toned rejoin

"Don't you? Then I'll tell you. You have been pinching this town for the lion's share ever since we came hereshaking it down as you used to shake down the"-she broke off short, and again the indomitable will got the better of the seething passions. "We'll let the by-gones go, and come down to the the room and perched herself on the present. What if some of the things Griswold joined the conference with deep seat of the farthest window, it you are doing here now would get signal from the banker to his visitor. "For instance?" he suggested when

There was a trade journal lying in she paused. The daughter who had asked for bread and had been given a stone put her face in her hands and moved to she returned again like a spiteful little breath now and again, and a pressing "You think I can't prove it? That is where you fall down. I can convince lip, as she turned the pages of the adpeople if I choose to try. And that isn't all. I can tell them how you have only detached sentences of the talk, planned to sell Mr. Galbraith a tract of 'virgin' pine that has been culled over for the best timber at least three times in the past five years!" the other side of the house?" was one Jasper Grierson started from his chair and made a quick clutch into father's query, and she also heard the smoky space. "Madge-you little answer: "We're goin' to put 'em in devil!" he gritted.

bad, don't forget it. There'll be But the grasping hands closed upor some broken heads, most likely, and nothing and the sound of the closing if they're ours, somebody'll pay for door was his only answer.

'em." A little further along it was her When she had unhitched the little father who said: "You've got to quit Morgan and had driven away from the bank, Miss Grierson drove quickly to side of the fence. Murray's got his the Winnebago house and drew up at orders, and he'll pay the bills. If anythe carriage step. A bell boy ran out thing breaks loose, I won't know you. to the wheel of the phaeton. Two min-Get that?" "I'm on," said the redutes after the boy's disappearance. faced man; and shortly afterward he Broffin came out and touched his hat to the trim little person in the basket When the door had closed behind the man who looked like a ward heeler

"You are Matthew Broffin of the Colburne Detective agency, are you not?" she asked, sweetly. Broffin took the privilege of the ac cused and lied promptly. "Not that anybody ever heard of, I reckon." he denied, matching the smile in the inquiring eyes.

She laughed softly, "You see, it resolves itself into a question of veracity -between you and Mr. Andrew Galbraith. You say you are not, and he says you are. Which am I to believe?" Broffin did some pretty swift thinking. There had been time when he than Miss Farnham, might be the key to his problem. There was one chance in a thousand that she might inadhe should play his cards skillfully, gurgling laugh that spread from lip to and he took the chance. "You can call it a mistake of mine if you like," he yielded; and she nodded brightly.

"That is better: now we can go on comfortably. Are you too busy to take a little commission from me?" "Maybe not. What is it?" He was ooking for a trap, and would not ommit himself too broadly.

"There are two things that I wish o know definitely. Of course, you have heard about the accident on the lake? Mr. Galbraith is at our house, most of the time. He is continually trying to tell someone whom he calls 'MacFarland' to be careful. Do you know anyone of that name?" Again Broffin thought quickly. If he should tell the plain truth. . . . "Tell me one thing, Miss Grierson, he said bluntly. "Am I doin' business with you, or with your father?" "Most emphatically, with me, Mr. Broffin."

"All right; everything goes, then. Mr. Galbraith has been figurin' on buying some pine lands up north, and he has sent MacFarland up to Duluth to verify the boundary records on the country survey."

"I thought so," she affirmed. And then: "The records are all right, Mr. Broffin: but the lands which Mr. Mac-Farland will be shown will not be the lands which Mr. Galbraith is talking of buying. I want evidence of thisin black and white. Can you telegraph "D'ye See That Felly Doublin' the to someone in Duluth?"

Broffin permitted himself a small sigh of relief. He thought he had seen not," he denied. "It's business now the trap; that she was going to try to get him away from Wahaska.

barred. I'll give you a check for that "I can do better than that," he offered. "I can send a man from St. Paul: a good safe man who will do "Does that mean that you intend to just what he is told to do-and keep go on until you have smashed him?" his mouth shut." She nodded approvingly. "I'm going to put him out of busi

"Do it; and tell your messenger that ness-him and that other fool friend time is precious and expense doesn't count. That is the first half of your Again the sudden lightning glowed commission. Come a little closer and I'll tell you the second half." in Margery Grierson's eyes; again Broffin bent his head and she whispered the remainder of his instruclooked up and wagered his head apprehendingly.

"Yes: I see what you mean-and it's one o' my business what you mean it for," he answered. "I'll get the evidence, if there is any."

"It must be like the other; in black and white," she stipulated. "And you needn't say 'if.' Look for a red-faced front, and make him tell you." Miss Grierson was opening banknote to her newest confederate. "Your retainer" she explained. Broffin's grin this time was wholly of appreciation

"You're the right kind-the having over at the iron works. Don't that leads trumps all the while, Miss bother to deny it; I know. That was Grierson," he told her. Then he did your 'heeler'-the man you had here the manly thing. "I'll go into this, just and compliments from the spectators many people; don't you think you'd to warn you that it may turn up some things that'll feaze you. You know Grierson was mouthing his cigar that old sayin' about sleepin' dogs?" Miss Grierson was gathering the thickening to its customary density reins over the little Morgan's back and when he said: "You're nothing but a her black eyes snapped. "This is one time when we are go the moon, you'd think you ought to ing to kick the dogs and make them have it. I've said my say, and that's wake up." she returned. "Good-by

(To be Continued.)

Argentina's breweries annually pro-She slipped out of the window-seat duce enough beer to give two and a country.

"I'll go when you have answered FOOTSTEPS OF THE FATHERS The gallant knight worthily bestowed the suppress-

Yorkville Enquirer.

Bringing Up Records of the Past and Giving the Younger Readers of To- ginia Campbell as third maid of honday a Pretty Comprehensive Knowledge of the Things that Most Concerned Generations that Have Gone ished in our issue of November 913. The notes are being prepared by mit. Their purpose is to bring into review the events of the past for the pleasure and satisfaction of the older

158TH INSTALLMENT

(Thursday Morning, Nov. 1, 1866). Married-In the district at the resiultimo, by Rev. James McDowell, Dr. there. Samuel A. Kell and Miss Hattle E. Gillespie.

At the bride's residence in Chester district, on Tuesday, the 16th instant, by Rev. Robert Bryce, Mr. J. Albertus Ratchford of York district, and Miss N. E. White of the former district.

(Thursday Morning, Nov. 8, 1866). Death of Rev. R. Y. Russell. It is with pain that we announce the leath of this esteemed and venerable servant of God. He has long beer known in our community and district and by his eminent labors and devoted life had won the respect of all. Very tender ties bind him to many; from many a heart prayer will ascend for the bereaved family; many will weep tears of genuine sorrow at his loss. With him it was going to rest. In a mature age, after long and faithful labors for his Savior, with an experience he has disappeared from us. to stand amid-the blest. May the tender mercies of a gra cious God and Father be abundantly nanifested to his stricken household ripened for heaven by the sanctified trial of a tedious and painful illnes

. . . Married-Oct. 16, by Rev. M. Oates Mr. William Whitesides and Miss Lizzie Hemphill, all of York district.

(Thursday Morning, Nov. 15, 1866). Married-In this district on Wednesday, 7th instant, by Rev. S. L. Watson, Mr. J. C. Duff of Tennosse had fancied that Miss Grierson, rather and Miss Jane C. Craig, daughter of Mr. N. B. Craig of York district. On Tuesday, 6th instant, by Jas. D.

Currence, Mr. Alexander A. Barnett trict. vertently put the key into his hands and Mrs. Sarah E. Barnett, all of this In this district on the 25th of October, by W. M. McGill, Esq., at his residence, Mr. Jasper Hays and Miss Lucinda Ferguson, both of Gaston coun-

(Thursday Morning, Nov. 22, 1866). King's Mountain R. R.

The cars on the King's Mountain railroad, are running to Philadelphia church, four miles from this town. We are encouraged to believe that under the management of its worthy president the trains on this end will and he is very ill-out of his head in a few weeks more be running to the Married-On Tuesday, the 13th in stant, by Rev. M. Oates, Mr. R. M Plexico and Miss Nannie E. McGill, daughter of John McGill, Esq., all of this district.

(Thursday Morning, Dec. 6, 18866.) Married-On the 29th ult., by Wm. McGill Esq Mr David Murat and Miss Sarah Wear, both of Gastor county, N. C. Near Clay Hill, in this district, on the 29th of November, by Rev. J. M. Cline, Mr. Wm. J. Faris and Miss Amanda Neely, daughter of the late Milton Neely, all of York district. Near Ebenezer, on the 29th ult., by

Rev. J. M. Cline, Capt. Henry of Anson county, N. C., and Mrs. Isabella Avcock of York district. In York district, on the 27th ult. by Rev. W. W. Ratchford, Mr. E. A Robinson and Miss Elizabeth McCauley, all of York district. On the 29th ult., by Rev. W. W. Ratchford, Mr. J. Lee Alexander and Miss C. C. Smith, daughter of Mr. J. D. Smith of Mecklenburg, N. C.

On the 15th ult., by Rev. Henry J Dickson, Col. Robert M. Kerr and Miss Margaret R. Roach, all of this district. On the 27th ult., by Rev. Wm. C Power, Mr. John W. Ardery of Meck-

H., daughter of Benjamin Massey Esq., of York district. In Charleston, on Tuesday morning, 20th ult., at St. Mary's church, by the

of A. P. Chapeau, Esq., all of that city. (Thursday Morning, Dec. 13, 1866.)

The Betirel Tournament. A friend from the neighborhood of Bethel, has kindly furnished us with the particulars of the tournament cilla Domini," the year following. which came off there on the 6th inst. Early in the morning of the appointed day a gay assemblage of "Ye gallant knights and faire ladies" convoked at the grounds where the feats of prowess were to be enacted by the champions of the stirrup. The knights last and now infests four counties in formed in martial array by Dr. J. Blair the southwestern part of the state, purse and she passed a yellow-backed Hunter, their chief, appeared on the according to officials at the capitol, ground, mounted at 10 a. m., and after who have been making a close investithe usual gallant compliments of the gation, says an Atlanta dispatch. The gay costumes, the fearless horse manship and expert handling of the rein and sabre elicited many smiles

> Three heads were arranged in line at a suitable distance apart and the contest was first for the championship with the sabre at these. Each knight was allowed three passes at these objects. Then came the exercises with the lance at the rings. After weapons, the knights were assembled at the judge's stand and the championship awarded.

ilege of crowning the queen of the day. beer.

J. A. Campbell, knight of the "Sunn; South," being declared the next successful competitor, crowned Miss Maggie Armstrong as first maid of honor. W. S. Adams, knight of "Sobleski," the third competitor, selected "I don't know what you're driving NEWS AND VIEWS OF YESTERDAY Miss Lou. Lawrence as second maid CONDENSED FOR QUICK READING road. of honor. J. W. Barnett, fourth on the list of the gallants, selected Miss Vir

> These pleasant exercises being per formed with a taste of gallantry highly creditable to the occasion, the astertainment, the banquet. Of this we can speak from the record as we were people and for the entertainment and instruction of the present generation. venture to say that never did the old hills of Bethel vield a better display of edibles than on this occasion. And dence of the bride's mother, the 20th those whose fortune it was to be

> > After this agreeable performance was over, the dancing hall again resounded to the tread of the dancers morning the dance was continued. Long will those who were present remember the tournament of Bethel ered by Mamie and Sylvester Moore, and many a gallant knight we trow won there not merely the chaplet of wear through life."

H. H. Gowin and Mrs. Isabella Brat-

of the former district. Miss M. E. Hanna of Gaston.

(Thursday Morning, Dec. 20, 1866.) Married-On the 5th inst., by Rev R. P. Franks, Maj. T. C. Beckham and Miss Mattie L. Henkle, all of Chester district. On Tuesday evening, 18th inst., by Rev. J. H. Martin, Mr. James E. Wilson, the editor-in-chief of The Enquirer for the next year, and Miss Mary E. Williamson, all of this dis-

(To be Continued.)

PRECOCIOUS PAINTERS

Famous Pictures that Were Some Produced by Mere Boys. Sir David Wilkie was probably the great national collections or in the possession of the king. He was extremehave been born with a palette in his hand. Wilkie painted his famous and very characteristic picture, "Pitlessie Fair," when he was a mere lad. It was local scene which he knew well, and been in progress for more than the demonstration agent, presiding..... the 140 figures which it contains were past two years in regard to the se- David Gill, colored, of Cedar Creek all sketched from his father's parishioners, for Wilkie was a "son of the building, the board of trustees of boy over to the Fennell infirmary manse." As his father would have school district No. 10, and R. C. Sar- Wednesday to have an obstruction rebeen very angry to think his boy was ratt, G. T. Green and E. A. Hedrick, moved from the alimentary canal. The doing such a wrong thing as to ridi- representing the people of West End, little fellow had swallowed a piece of cule his dear flock, David had to use yesterday signed an agreement decidhis models quite "unbeknown" to them -in fact, during service. The young to make a choice between the Dr. M. swallow anything and was slowly artist got them all "under the book-

vas at his leisure.

when he was nine? many boys of fifteen know anything of Pizarro or the Incas even if they happen to know the whereabout of but could realize them in splendid sick at her home on Hampton street. power in paint and get his picture on only fifteen when he painted one of at the Fennell infirmary, and is gethis supreme masterpieces, judged by ting along nicely......The host of did. "Lorenzo and Isabella," which is learn with regret that she is quite of her age. The remains were buried one of the treasurers of the Walker sick at her home on Oakland avenue. lenburg county, N. C., and Miss Mary Art Gallery of Liverpool. Holman Hunt was only twenty when Saturday for King's Mountain, where he painted his famous "Eve of St. Ag- she will teach this year in the graded nes," and still little more than a boy schools....Oscar L. Derrick, who has when he painted his remarkable pic- been one of the overseers at the Victure which he called "Behold I Stand toria mill for a number of years, T. Chapeau and Ellen, only daughter at the Door and Knock," but which is leaves tomorrow night for Danville, known to the world today as "The Va., where he goes to take charge of Light of the World," a replica of which one of the mills under W. W. Moore, can be seen in St. Paul's cathedral. "Girlhood of Mary Virgin," when he have secured board in homes outside Euphrates, which is now the center Rossetti painted his lovely picture, was twenty and his famous "Ecce An- of the college. This became neces-Landseer was amazingly precocious He exhibited his first academy picture lack of dormitory room. Winthrop the tramp of armed men. when he was fifteen.-Exchange.

- The dreaded boll weevil has made its official appearance in Georgia at softer sex, proceeded to contest for Eight or more other counties are in fire one day last week. The house the direct line of march of the boll was one of the old colonial two-story weevil, which are now infesting De- log houses and is said to have been cauter, Thomas, Grady and Brooks, built at least 125 years.....Pauline The weevils are thick. A quarantine the eleven-months-old daughter of against the shipment of cotton seed is Mr. and Mrs. James Mayne of the Dilsuggested and the farmers have been ling mill, died Monday morning and ordered to burn all the infected stalks. was buried here Tuesday afternoon. The weevil reached Georgia two The funeral was conducted at 2 o'clock years ahead of its schedule as calcu- by Rev. W. B. Tillman at the home. lated by the state experts. It averages 25 miles a year in its march but Dilling Mill corporation. At the meetit came 90 miles in the past year, ing of the directors of the mill last Turks are conducting their campaign fused. The warrant will probably be jumping over Alabama in the longest week, Capt. Dilling resigned as secredisplay of fine horsemanship and leap it has made since 1900, the year tary-treasurer, and was elected presinuch expertness in the use of their of the Galveston flood. It found the dent to succeed Dr. O. G. Falls who spared from descruction. The village state unprepared to meet it.

a beautiful rose color, but to be harm-less when used in the manufacture of beer. responsibility of the office he formerly held.....A very successful revival sites.

News Happenings In Neighboring Communities.

Dealing Mainly With Local Affairs of Cherokee, Cleveland, Gaston, Lancaster and Chester.

Chester Reporter, Sept. 9: The an nual report of County Superintendent mblage soon after adjourned to the of Education W. D. Knox, which was The first installment of the notes ap-hospitable home of Dr. J. Blair Hunter completed and forwarded to Columbia earing under this heading was pub-where the light "fantastic toe" was several days ago, is the usual intertripped until the soft hours of the esting budget of information with renight called the guests to another en- gard to the school affairs of Chester year there was an enrollment of 7,312, divided according to races as follows: White, 2.623; colored, 4.689. The average attendance was: White, 1.863; colored, 2,896.....Coroner J. H. Gladden held an inquest near Lewis yesfull justice was meted the luxuries by terday, over the remains of Sandy Pride. Jr., a seventeen-year-old colored youth, whose body was discovered in the waters of the South Fork of Fishing creek Tuesday afternoon near Mills' mill. Pride had been missing and long into the small hours of the from home since Thursday afternoon, September 2, and had been sought for far and wide. The body was discovchildren of William Moore, and was badly decomposed, giving evidence of and only at times able to get about an hour but a "crown of beauty to the fact that the remains had been in the water for several days. There were no bruises or wounds of any Married-In this district, on the kind about the body, and it is gener-6th inst., by Rev. J. H. Martin, Mr. ally supposed that Pride fell into the stream and was drowned; but as there was no direct evidence on this point On the 4th inst., Mr. James H. the jury brought in a verdict to the Chandler of Granville county, N. C., effect that the deceased came to his and Miss Addie J. Kidd of this dis-death in the waters of Fishing creek by means unknown to the jury..... In Laurens district, on the 4th inst., Mr. L. A. Wise, the jeweler, made an highway bridge across the Catawba by Rev. T. D. Gwinn, Rev. J. T. Gwinn assignment yesterday morning for the at Mount Holly Wednesday was made of York district, and Mrs. P. C. Hobby benefit of his creditors, Mr. M. L. Marion being named as assignee. Mr. In Gaston county, N. C., on the 6th Wise's assets, we understand, amount inst., by Rev. W. W. Carothers, Mr. to about $5,100, including stock and from Gastonia, Belmont, Cherryville John L. Carson of York district, and accounts due him, while his liabilities are about $4,000 The engagement In this district, on Tuesday, 11th of Miss Louise Hicklin of this city, and inst., by Rev. R. A. Ross, Mr. W. P. Mr. Charles Wesley Boyd of Pamlico, Wylie and Mrs. M. H. Clark, all of S. C., was announced yeesterday af-

> Gaffney Ledger, Sept. 10: The ne groes of Gaffney and vicinity observed Labor day Monday at Bethel Mr. Grier has acted in the capacity of church. Rev. Richard Carroll of Co-chairman of the board during his the killing of Arthur Burts, a negro umbia, was the principal speaker of the occasion. He delivered a strong his resignation, J. B. Mills was elected address, advising the negroes to stay to the chairmanship.....The Fort on the farm, where they can make a Mill Graded school Monday began Railroad company and will go to A large attendent, is in charge. county. week to begin work. The Bonsal sysem is building a line from Charleston to Savannah.....Mr. T. T. Griffith Cherokee Savings bank, succeeding store, was appointed city registrar for in Charleston charged with shooting most popular painter of his time and Mr. Claude Poole, who resigned to the ensuing year. one of the most deservedly so, and his take up school work. Mr. Poole will pictures today are almost all in the go to Furman University, Greenville, which opens for the present session next week.....A pretty wedding on successful and enjoyable picnic was al. ly precocious and might be said to Tuesday morning was that of Miss held at Antioch Wednesday. It was, Governor Manning has issued re-Ila May Bryant and Mr. Ernest Peel- estimated that between 1,000 and 1,- quisition papers on the governor of er, which took place at the home of 500 people were in attendance. The Florida for the return of J. E. Shirah the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. programme began promptly at 11.30 who is wanted in Richland county on T. Bryant, on Logan street.....De- a. m., with Mr. C. L. McManus, the the charge of wife desertion and nontermined to end the litigation that has progressive and efficient county farm support. lection of a site for a new school township, carried his little 12-year-old ing to allow the voters of the district channel of the canal. He could not W. Smith lot on the corner of Logan starving to death. The obstruction was board" and transferred them on can- and Meadow streets, and the W. O. removed with instruments and he is Johnson lot, on West Frederick street. Everybody knows that Millais was An election to settle the question Drennan is suffering with a swollen an "infant prodigy." Did he not win has been ordered to be held on next arm caused by the bite of a common the gold medal of the Royal academy Tuesday, September 14th.....Cordial house fly on the tip of one of his interest is centered in the marriage fingers. It has caused him much pain of Miss Marie Norwood and Mr. and inconvenience. Mr. Drennan is range near Columbia September 13 to ing and masterly canvas entitled "Pi- Clyde Peeler, which was an event of now, more than ever, a believer in the 18, has been postponed until Septemzarro Seizing the Inca of Peru." How Tuesday afternoon at the bride's home in Hendersonville.

Rock Hill Record, Sept. 9: The Peru? Yet Millais was only that age many friends of Mrs. J. B. Patrick when he not only knew these things, will regret to learn that she is quite Miss Bertha Hamilton was ope the line at the academy, and he was rated on yesterday for appendicitis some to be the greatest thing he ever friends of Mrs. John G. Anderson willMiss Jennie Lee Kerr will leave formerly of this city.....It is said ries ago. The exact position lies bethat about 200 Winthrop students tween Annoh and Hitt, on the upper sary because of the very large enroll- former home of Adam and Eve rement of Winthrop and the consequent needs another dormitory Miss Maud Chaplin left this morning for Macon, Ga., where she will resume her teaching at Wesleyan college. King's Mountain Herald, Sept. 9:

A house on the farm of J. O. Plonk out on Pott's creek, occupied by Henry Gordon, a tenant, was destroyed byCapt. F. Dilling again heads the meeting closed at Patterson Grove Friday Pastor J. R. Miller baptized eight converts. The meeting was con- Current Happenings and Events lucted by the pastor, assisted by Rev I. D. Harrill of Washburn station.... We note with pleasure that Clarence town of Greenwood. Plonk is erecting a splendid new residence on his farm on the Cherryville Gastonia Gazette, Sept. 10: Mr. S. J. Kirby of Selma, has arrived in Gastonia to enter upon his duties as instructor in the farm life departments of the farm life school at Dallas, and the other five state high schools in the county Glenn Turner, eightyear-old son of Mrs. Logan Turner, was struck and painfully injured by southbound Southern train No. 45 yesterday afternoon at the North Marietslowed down for the station, otherwise $23,750. the boy would doubtless have been killed.....Gaston county's $150,000 bond issue, authorized by the taxpayers in a recent election, were sold by the county commissioners yesterday to J. H. Hilsman & Co., of Atlanta Ga., for par and accrued interest and a premium of $1,517.55.....Mr. J. M. Blackwood, a substantial and wellknown citizen of the county, died at his home near Pisgah church, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Death was due to heart trouble from which he had been suffering for years. For eight years past he had been practically an invalid, unable to do any work with any degree of comfort Gov Stuart of Virginia, has notified the King's Mountain Memorial association that it will be impossible for him to accept the invitation extended to him to deliver the principal address on the occasion of the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of King's Mountain next month. Congressman Webb has been chosen to take his place.....The opening of the new the occasion of a big celebration by 59 years. the citizens of Mount Holly and was attended by a large crewd of visitors Charlotte and other towns in Gaston and Mecklenburg.

Fort Mill Times, Sept. 9: At a of trustees of the Fort Mill public school, Mr. R. F. Grier, who has been a member of the board for about membership of the body, and upon on July 9. greater success than in any other what promises to be another success- judge to preside over the fall term of business.....Mr. L. S. Wood has been ful year. Prof. J. D. Fulp, the newly court of common pleas for Greenwood has accepted a position with the Mr. A. C. Lytle of the Parks Drug Lancaster News, Sept. 10: A most claims that the shooting was accidentbeef which had become lodged in the now on the road to recovery Mr. W. swatting the fly...... The many ber 20 to 27. The shoot was postponed friends of the old Confederate veteran, because one of the officers failed to Mr. W. H. Rives, will regret to hear make report. that he sustained painful injuries about the head Tuesday night by a fall from the piazza of his home to the ground below. Dr. Brown was called in and attended the injuries, which are not serious.....Junie Crenshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Crenshaw, died on the 3rd of September, day, the Rev. C. W. Burgess officiat-In the Garden of Eden. The battle ground in Egypt, where the British forces are opposing the tempted to assault a woman relative Turks is the site which archeologists claim to be the spot where the Garden of Eden existed countless centuof the Turko-British struggle. The sounds to the roar of howitzers and Many sacred scenes of Bible history after a short illness in the 12th year are involved in the British campaign against the Turks in Palestine. One of the most sacred lakes in the world, the Sea of Gennesaret, or the Lake of Gallilee, is in the war zone. It lies not far from Nazareth, and it was from it that St. Peter and the fishermen of the country gathered their livelihood. Here was also the town of Capernaum, famous for its miracle records. The hills around Nazareth are now mines and air bombs. The sites where Moses received the wanderings in the wilderness occurred have seen the horrors of war. The with utter indifference to the claims of eacred buildings and territory to be also resigned as president. Mr. J. F. of Gaza, where Samson carried away charge me with reckless extravagance. Jenkins of Gaffney, S. C., was elected the city gates, and the town of Heb- When did I ever make a useless pur-Closely related to yeast, fungi dis- secretary-treasurer to succeed Capt. ron, where Abraham was buried, lie in chase? covered in breweries by a Japanese Dilling. Mr. Dilling says that he is the path of the Turkish army, and it Wife-Why, there's that fire ex-"Southern Cross," was declared the scientist have been found to dye silk growing too old to be taxed with the is doubtful whether the soldiers will tinguisher you bought a year ago.

PALMETTO GLEANINGS Throughout South Carolina. A jitney bus is being operated in the

> J. S. Townes, a well known grocer of Chester, has filed a petition in bank-

> The Dean building, one of the largest in the town of Darlington was destroyed by fire Friday morning.

TERMS----$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

The Charleston fire department has purchased a new fire engine at a cost of $10,500. It is of 109 horse power. A white man has been arrested in Anderson county charged with criminal assault upon a colored girl.

J. M. Harby has secured a contract to build a new girl's high school building in Sumter. The building will cost

Although it maintains dispensaries, Aiken county is in debt to the extent of $30,000 and has not the money to pay the county officers.

Citizens of Spartanburg propose to make a "Good Roads" tour this week. None save "Ford" cars will be allowed James N. McBride of Florence, has been appointed agricultural agent of the Seaboard Air Line railway. He is a graduate of Clemson college.

A great deal of cotton has been sold on the Darlington market Some of the long staple variety sold for 16 cents

Rev. Kirkman G. Finley of Columbia, has been elected president of the State Conference for the Common

J. J. Lipes was arrested in Greenville last week on the charge of allowing negroes and whites to eat at the same table in his restaurant.

W. A. Nesbit, a prominent citizen of Greenville, and a former member of the house of representatives from Greenville county, died Friday, aged William Banks, editor of the Columbia Record, has been appointed a trustee for the state negro college at Orangeburg, to succeed J. W. Floyd of Dillon, deceased.

August Kohn of Columbia, was elected secretary and treasurer of the meeting Monday morning of the board southern Surety and Casualty conference at the meeting of that organization in Asheville, N. C., last week. Frank Hudgens, secretary of the Chiquola cotton mills at Honea Path in Anderson county, was acquitted of ars and The state penitentiary proposes to opening, and work for the session is county chaingangs on condition that now on in earnest.....At a meeting the counties pay 20 cents per day for of the city council Tuesday evening, their board while in the penitentiary.

Hon Thos G McLeod of Bishopville, has been appointed a special

William Ball, a negro boy, is in jail 4-year-old Wentworth Short to death. Ball is about 17 years of age. He

James B. Duke, president of the Southern Power company, spent several days in this state last week inspecting his holdings. He gave it as would last at least one year longer. George W. Tidwell, twice convicted n the Greenville county court of general sessions, of manslaughter in con-Walker, has been released on bond in the sum of $6,000, pending his appeal to the supreme court. The state rifle shoot to select a was to have been held at the state J. B. Thackston, game warden of Greenville county last week arrested two negroes, charging them with killing mocking birds, robins and other non-game birds whose slaughter is prohibited by state law. One of the team for the national contest which negroes was fined $50 and the other Martin Myers a Bamberg county farmer and W. F. Myers his son, were found not guilty last week of the murder of Luck Wilson, a negro, at the negro's home in Orangeburg county. The defendants plead self defense and temporary insanity. The negro had at-

of the defendants. Congressman J. W. Ragsdale, of South Carolina, speaking before the United Association of Postoffice Clerks, says a Los Angeles, Cal., dispatch of last Thursday, denounced the present pension system as "iniquitous," and said he intended to work for the passage of a law which would give pensions to civil employes of the Federal government as well as to sol-

The superintendent of the city schools. Frank Evans, today went before Magistrate D. L. Jennings and of a negro woman, Connie Merrill, because of her alleged violation of the South Carolina compulsory education law, in that she would not answer the questions put to her by the census taker, says a Spartanburg dispatch of fortified by the Turks, and the sacred Friday to the Charlotte Observer. This ruins of Capernaum are threatened by is the first time in the history of the state that such a case has come up. In accordance with the law. Superin-Ten Commandments and where all tendent Evans has been having a the stirring events of the Israelite census of all the childre nin the city taken but the negro woman when her turn came to answer the question, re-

Real Extravagance.—Husband—You